

The word “maundy” comes from a Latin word which means “mandate” or “command.” This term is applied to the Thursday of Holy Week, because on that Thursday before Christ was crucified Jesus told His disciples: “A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.” (John 13:34-35)
